Channel Bass Peculiarities.

Hartie I. Phillips of the Asburs Park Flahing Cub, discussing the peculiarities of channel bass fishing, said yesterday. "On September 4 Dr. Harteld L. Baldwin, Henry Connegs; and Joe Stevens wanted me to go to the said layer with them channel bass fishing. I loud them that I would go it they would be ready at 5 A. M. and are instack so that I could take a table train to Toms River. It was just a chance that we hight got a channel bass or a strike or two. We reached Heach Haven, got lunch and started fishing at Ulifo A. M.

"We had been fishing about half an hou when I got a strike and landed a twentounder. Then Baldwin got a strike, loshing fish, but got a nother strike and landed a 5- pound fish. Later I got a lift up and Dr. Haldwin got nother. Following that I got a strike. Thus we had six strike.
